

The AMLE Institute for Middle Level Leadership

A one-of-a-kind, collaborative learning event designed to meet your needs as a middle grades leader.

June 25–28, 2017 • Orlando, FL

July 9–12, 2017 • San Diego, CA

A decorative graphic at the bottom of the page consists of several overlapping, colorful arrows pointing upwards. The arrows are in various colors including red, blue, green, orange, purple, and yellow. Some arrows are solid, while others have dashed white lines running through them. The overall effect is one of upward movement and growth.

Learning your way!

Participate in a variety of presentation formats including:

Technology Sandbox Pre-Conference: Bring your own device and get hands-on guidance on apps that will support your leadership growth.

General Session: These engaging, whole-group sessions examine the 16 characteristics of an effective middle grades program and the leadership actions that make those characteristics work.

Home Base Meetings: Similar to homeroom or advisory, these small-group meetings will give you the chance to deeply discuss and examine key middle grades concepts.

Content Breakout Sessions: You'll get a variety of content from AMLE middle level experts in these interactive, solution-rich sessions.

Show & Spark Speed Learning Session: This session shines a spotlight on the great programs and initiatives at your school and you'll learn from other attendees in a quick, personal setting.

Job-Alike Session: You'll meet and collaborate with attendees that share your job or role to discuss similar triumphs, challenges, and solutions.

Individual or School Planning Time/Faculty Open Office Hours: Reflect on the learning from the day—individually, with a colleague, or with your team—and/or meet with any of the Institute faculty members.

Open Space Sessions: Bring your critical issues and concerns, and then create sessions you need! Build the conference you want within the Institute, and get ideas to improve your school!

Team-Building Special Mission: In this activity-filled session you'll join other Institute attendees in games that create great teams, laughs, and camaraderie!
