Course Description: This institute will help middle school leaders (i.e. administrators, teacher leaders, district personnel, etc.) create the most effective educational experience for every young adolescent they serve. Participants will become effective and collaborative leaders for their students, fellow educators, and community. They will also use the research-based and proven middle grades practices found in This We Believe as the framework to create high-performing middle grades schools, and will build a community of practice that will assist them with challenges and share in their successes before, during, and after the institute.

Course Meeting Time and Expectations: Participants in this professional development education course will initially participate in a 25-hour instructional session on the topic. Following the seminar, participants will plan and implement lessons, policies or evidence-based strategies which integrate the focus of the professional development seminar into their classroom practice. Following the implementation, the participant will be a reflective practitioner and consider the degree to which the implementation of the new technique or practice was successful as well as the areas in which continued refinement, practice, and development will be necessary. Therefore, the course will involve twenty-five hours of direct participation at minimum.

Course Prerequisites: State certification or licensure as an educator

Required Resources: NA

Other Learning Resources: May be recommended by the presenter during the seminar.

Teaching Strategies: Lecture, discussion reflection, open-ended questions, role-playing, Q&A.

Course Evaluation and Grading: The students enrolled in this Institute must produce an essay that answers the following questions: (1) what goals did you have for yourself and for your school that brought you to the AMLE Institute for Middle Level Leadership? (2) What specific information, skills, and insights did you obtain as a result of your time at the Institute? (3) What questions or concerns remain after you attended the Institute? And (4) what next steps will you take to improve your middle school based on the Institute learning?

Grading Scale:

90 – 100 Points = A

80 – 89 Points = B

70 – 79 Points = C

60 – 69 Points = D

Less than 60 Points = F

Course and Instructor Policies: Participants must participate in the entire professional development presentation. All sections of the written assignment must be turned in online within the course deadlines. Students are required to keep a copy of all work submitted.

Program/Department Policies: N/A

CUW Policies

CUW Disability Policy: In accordance with the Americans and Disabilities Act (ADA) and Section 504 of the Vocational Rehabilitation Act of 1973, individuals with disabilities are protected from discrimination and assured services and accommodations that provide equal access to the activities and programs of the university. Students with a documented disability who require accommodation in order to obtain equal access to this course should inform the instructor, and must also contact Disability Support Services

CUW Academic Integrity Policy: CUW expects all students to display honest, ethical behavior at all times and under all circumstances. Academic dishonesty is defined as follows:

Cheating: includes, but is not limited to: a) the use of unauthorized assistance in taking any type of test or completing any type of classroom assignment; b) assisting another student in cheating on a test or class assignment, including impersonation of another student.

Plagiarism: includes, but is not limited to: a) failure to give full and clear acknowledgement of the source of any idea that is not your own; b) handing in the same assignment for two different courses without the consent of the instructors.

Fabrication: the forgery, alteration, or misuse of any University academic document, record, or instrument of identification.

Academic Misconduct: intentionally or recklessly interfering with teaching, research, and/or other academic functions.

Sanctions: Faculty members who find evidence of academic dishonesty have sole discretion to determine the penalty, using their professional judgment. This can include a failing grade in the course, or removal of the student from the course. Additional sanctions will be imposed when a student is found to have violated the academic integrity policy more than once; these sanctions may include suspension or expulsion from the university.

Title IX Policy: Concordia University is committed to fostering a safe, productive learning environment. University policy and federal law (Title IX) prohibit discrimination on the basis of sex which includes but is not limited to harassment, domestic and dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking. Sexual misconduct of any type is not permitted by the university. Please see the following link for more information about CU's policies and procedures concerning sexual misconduct: <https://www.cuw.edu/academics/compliance/consumer-info/index.html>

For more information on academic integrity, please see the Academic Policies section of the Student Handbook, which can be accessed at the following link: <https://www.cuw.edu/Departments/residencelife/assets/studentconductcode.pdf>

Relationship to the Curriculum: Professional Development that actually changes the behavior and practices of educators requires time for processing, planning, implementation and reflection. The use of evidence-based best practices for instruction, assessment, discipline, and use of technology all will require this four-step process before we will see real improvement in schools.

EDGP 5042: AMLE Institute for Middle Level Leadership

Connection to CUW Mission: This course will require educators to demonstrate the ability to analyze and apply their discipline's theoretical, methodological, ethical, or practical foundations. This will enable them to help their own students develop more readily in mind, body, and spirit as well.

Global Ends

University graduates are well developed in mind, body, and spirit, fulfill their vocations, and serve Christ in the Church and the world. Consistent with a Liberal Arts education, our graduates demonstrate the following proficiencies:

1. Christian Faith - Our graduates are grounded in the Christian faith while also recognizing other major worldviews and how they differ from a Christian understanding of the world.
2. Service and Global Citizenship - Our graduates are globally-minded citizens.
3. Integrated Disciplinary Knowledge - Our graduates integrate insights from a wide range of disciplines.
4. Critical Thinking/Creative Problem Solving - Our graduates think rationally, critically, and creatively.
5. Communicative Fluency - Our graduates communicate effectively.
6. Analytical Fluency - Our graduates work with data effectively.
