

AMLE Seeks Applications for Faculty Advisor for CMLA Chapter-at-Large

The CMLA Chapter-at-Large is seeking a faculty advisor who will serve a 3-year term. The CMLA Chapter-at-Large functions virtually and is available for AMLE student members enrolled full-time in programs which do not have a CMLA chapter at their university

Applicants should possess a comprehensive understanding of middle level teacher preparation. The applicant should be knowledgeable about AMLE and CMLA; be technologically proficient; possess strong language, editing, and people skills. Only serious candidates willing to make a multi-year commitment should apply.

Position Responsibilities

Examples of responsibilities include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Provide guidance and advice for student leaders, including the chapter president, vice president, secretary, and delegates at-large.
- Serve as a liaison between student leaders and CMLA.
- Be a consistent contact for student members
- Assist student members in locating resources.
- Help with student leadership transition.
- Attend CMLA Advisor committee meetings.

Benefits for faculty advisor

- Complimentary AMLE membership.
- Complimentary AMLE Annual Conference registration
- Develop tomorrow's leaders for middle level education.
- Member discounts on programs, products, and services.
- Recognition of your service sent to your Dean of Education (at your request).
- A professional activity that you can highlight on your faculty vitae.
- Connection to other middle grades teacher educators and students across the country.

To apply, please submit a curriculum vitae and letter of interest explaining how your skills match the position to Stephanie Auditore at sauditore@amle.org. The advisor will be chosen through a selection committee comprised of members of the AMLE Board of Trustees, current CMLA advisors, and PPAC committee members.

Deadline to Apply: October 31, 2020
