<td>1. The UN was founded to preserve world peace by promoting international peace.</td>
<td>With a union this large wouldn’t world domination always be on their mind? Although it is meant to promote peace I could see this turn into another war and the UN dominating the entire world. There is bound to be tension between these two nations. If there are two superior countries then they will both strive to be the best. The world is power hungry and these cannot be two number ones.</td>
