

Figure 4. Collaborative Conversation Chart

To offer or ask for ideas or opinions:

I noticed that _____.

In my opinion, _____.

Do you have a different opinion/point of view?

To clarify or add information:

Adding on to what _____ said, _____.

In addition, I learned that _____.

I heard you say _____. Is that correct?

You've made a good point. I hadn't thought about it that way.

I understand _____, but _____ isn't clear. Can you add to that part?

To agree or disagree:

I agree with _____. I also think _____.

Yes, I agree because _____.

_____, just said _____, but _____.

I disagree because _____.

To ask for evidence or offer text evidence:

What evidence do you have to justify your claim?

What makes you think so?

The reason I think _____ is that _____.